RANCHO CUCAMONGA - Etiwanda Colony Elementary School was one of four Inland Empire schools to receive $5,000 and a Round Table pizza party for the school.

The school participated in Lefty's Reading Challenge, sponsored by Auto Club Speedway, held recently in more than 170 schools in San Bernardino, Riverside, San Diego and Los Angeles counties with more than 104,000 students participated and reading more than 600,000 books.

In addition to the money and party, all teachers who had 100 percent participation in their classroom received two tickets to the Auto Club 400 race held last month.

Other winners were May Ranch Elementary School in Perris, Lake Arrowhead Elementary School in Lake Arrowhead and River Springs Charter Corona Student Center in Corona.
